Tango in the Close Embrace

When most Americans think of tango, they envision gravity-defying dips, flashy movements, and whipping kicks with legs intertwined.

The real tango of Buenos Aires, however, is danced in a completely different style. There is no room in Buenos Aires dance-halls for wild kicks or leaps. Couples engaged in body-hugging embraces move sinuously around unbelievably crowded floors. Their close embrace, or "milonguero" tango is all about connection: Connection to your partner, connection to the music, connection to the spirit that is tango.

Close Embrace I:
Friday, Mar. 12th
7:30-9:00pm

Close Embrace II:
