

Argentine Tango History Lecture & Workshop with Anton Gazenbeek & Natalie Laruccia Sunday May 21st at Oddfellow's Hall

1:00 - 2:30 pm Historical Presentation

Anton Gazenbeek, a renowned tango historian, anthropologist, and tango dancer, has spent many years researching and investigating the roots of tango. Through his research he has gathered rare footage of Argentine Milongueros from the 1940s, 1950s, and 1960s. Films will be shown and historic background information and anecdotes will be given on each milonguero. Historic styles of tango such as Salon, Orillero, Fantasia and Milonga will be discussed and the differences of each style will be explored in depth.

Images of Virulazo and Elvira will be shown as well as Antonio Todaro, Miguel and Nelly Balmaceda, Lampazo, Victor and La Rusa, and Dario and La Gallega in addition to many other unforgettable social tango dancers.

Anton and Natalie will end the presentation with an entertaining demonstration.

3:00 – 4:30 pm Beginning Tango

A class for those who have never tried Argentine Tango before as well as those who wish to focus on honing their fundamental dance skills.

4:30 – 6:00 pm Intermediate Tango
